POETRY.
The Old Cottage Clock.

Oh! the old, old clock of the household
That has rung so long and true,
Was the bright old, old clock of the household
That has rung so long and true.

It was a monitor too, thought its words were few,
And its voice still strong, warned old and young.

When the voice of friendship uttered
A kindly word, it said, "quickly to bed."
For the voice of friendship uttered
A kindly word, it said, "quickly to bed."

And the voice of friendship uttered
A kindly word, it said, "quickly to bed."
For the voice of friendship uttered
A kindly word, it said, "quickly to bed."

And the voice of friendship uttered
A kindly word, it said, "quickly to bed."
For the voice of friendship uttered
A kindly word, it said, "quickly to bed."

The Sunny South, again.
The editor of the Sunny South, after an absence and rest of three weeks, returns to his duty with a renewed energy and zeal. But the insane ravings of this disappointed aspirant, since they have resulted only in his own disappointment and defeat, can excite in us now little else than feelings of pity and contempt.

Disappointed malice, it is said often overreaches itself, and loses by the infamy to which it sinks the power to harm; and his case is an exemplification of the fact.

And for this malice towards us, he has no other reason, than that we would not submit to be over-run and supplanted by him, and ruined politically and personally.

He labors earnestly and zealously to prove that he is not the aggressor, and that it is not his chief object and only hope of success, to break down the Republican; notwithstanding he has not thought proper even to deny it until now; and notwithstanding he has kept up a continual war upon us, and poured out an unceasing flood of low billingsgate personal abuse.

The bare fact of the establishment of his paper, under the circumstances, would have riveted the conviction on the public mind, even if we had never said a word, that such and such only was his object.

The denial of the fact now, is as absurd as it would be in us to say that we never had repelled his aggression, or endeavored to defeat his nefarious design—as absurd as to say light is darkness, and darkness light.

It reminds us of the Stork, that sticks its head under a pile of stalks, leaving its whole body exposed, and vainly imagines that it is hid. But whatever he may say to the contrary, we know that in the issue between us, the public judgement is made up and the verdict rendered, and we know that that verdict is against him; it is as irreversible too, as the one rendered at the late election, by the people, against the Know Nothing party.

We could not wish him more harm than, continue to war against the Republican, & deny his object at the same time. It cannot sink him any lower in public estimation, but it can keep him at the bottom.

This living embodiment of impudence and affront, this self-concocted and self-constituted Guardian and Dictator of the democratic party, this man who would be our accuser, judge and executioner, this disappointed seeker of office from Washington to Montgomery, this man, upon all of whose enterprises the word failure seems written as with the finger of fate, has recently been to Montgomery. It was there we suppose "smelling the popular breeze," and as we have understood, seeking the office of Comptroller. We have no doubt from the result, that he found the breeze there about as unhealthy as the one he left behind him. But it is not strange that he could leave the dear democracy of Benton, from whom he is seeking an office, long enough to go to Montgomery and seek an other at the same time; and it is not enough to make the very genius of democracy weep and tremble, to think of the risk we have run in losing his valuable services. Since we come to think of it too, it is not astonishing, that the democratic party succeeded so well for fifteen years, with one unbroken series of victories, with no other organ than the Republican, while he was away off in Madison County, learning and preaching whiggery.

The editor says in the commencement that he will waive personal invective and abuse, and immediately proceeds to inflict upon his readers two columns of little else than the lowest billingsgate abuse of us. But the promise we made our patrons to be respectful to them, forbids that we should degrade ourselves by following his example, or rob them of so large a space which ought to be devoted to more important subjects. He indirectly calls us a fool by quoting the proverb, "never a fool according to his folly." It is a pity he should suffer himself to be so much troubled by a fool; but if he had searched a little further in Solomon's proverbs he would have found one applicable to himself, which says: "Seest thou a man wise in his own conceit? there is more hope of a fool than of him."

All that the editor says in such a bungling manner, save the use to which we applied the term "spurious" democrats, is appearing before the issue of his paper, his prospectus, &c. if it means anything, proves that he had been doing something, against us, before he issued his paper, for which his conscience "if he has any" was hurting him. But the truth is, we did know, as well his design, before he issued his paper as afterwards. That could be proven if necessary by those from whom he made the purchase.

He alludes again to his controversy with Judge Lewis, and in that allusion unnecessarily uses the most abusive and insulting language towards us, such as "false, crooked hearted traitor," &c. We have heretofore said that this controversy ought to have some unpleasant memories to him connected with it. We think so yet, if he has not forgotten that Judge Lewis published his receipt, in direct contradiction to his positive assertion.

In his answers to our questions, (if they can be called answers,) to the first, as to whether he was not in Madison county, and for a time after he came here a decided whig, he gives a flat and positive denial. On that subject then, we have nothing further to say, than that he is welcome, so far as we are concerned, to all the aid which this denial will give to his character for veracity in this community; and if we had ever suffered a moment's uneasiness respecting our character for veracity suffering in contrast with his, this unqualified denial would forever put that fear to flight.

He acknowledges that he joined the Know Nothings, but denies seeking the Presidency of the order, and says the conversation he had about the presidency was after the appointment was made. Well if it was afterwards, we wonder if he did not also find it out afterwards. He says he "took one degree, in common with thousands of good democrats in the State."

That thousands of good democrats in the State did do the same thing is as true as anything he has said. But how does it happen that it was so light and trivial a matter in him and those thousands, and yet such a heinous and unpardonable sin in us, as to cause us to deserve personal and political ruin, and the destruction of our paper. We presume if the editor of the Sunny South had wished to supplant each one of these thousands in a newspaper, it would have been in his eyes a very heinous sin in them also. What a pity that he cannot see the beam in his own eye, when he sees the mote so clearly in his brother's eye. He says if he is not mistaken we took "three degrees" and remained with them until after the election. Well he is mistaken: it is positively untrue that we took three degrees, and so far from remaining with them until after the election, we never acted with them at all.

But the editor of the Sunny South has not yet informed us why he will not fight the Eagle, and why he claims to be a Democrat, and yet makes it his sole business to try to break down a democratic paper.

It affords us great pleasure, in the list of Officers recently elected by the Legislature, to find the name of our townsman, John Foster, Esq., as Chancellor of the Northern Division.

We present our patrons this week with a paper printed chiefly on new type, of which we think we may be permitted to say, without boasting, that we might justly be proud. We most cheerfully expend money, and labor with increased energy for the benefit of our patrons, because we feel grateful for the stern and unyielding manner in which they have adhered to us through evil as well as good report; and we here renew all the promises we have ever made, to fulfill all the obligations we are under to them, morally, politically and socially. It will doubtless be good news to our patrons and friends who have labored to those who have labored assiduously for our downfall, to be informed that our subscription is larger now than ever before.

Woodland Female College.
We take pleasure in calling special attention of the friends of female education to the circular of the President and Trustees of this excellent institution of learning. The arrangements for the ensuing year, and also the proposals to secure a scholarship from one year up to perpetual, will be found to embrace more features of economy than perhaps can be found at any other point.

The President, Rev. J. M. Wood, has been long and favorably known in this State and Georgia, and has earned for himself an enviable reputation as a teacher, and President of such an institution. The Trustees have also secured the services of an able faculty. Taken altogether, we hesitate not to say that the College, in this beautiful, romantic and healthy locality, offers advantages, equalled by few if any others, and that it merits, and we hope will receive a liberal share of patronage from those in this community, who send to female Colleges and Institutes at a distance.

The Eagle asks us some additional questions in the last issue, the most important of which is in relation to the meeting and action of the late Know Nothing State Council at Montgomery. He asks our opinion of the Platform there adopted. All we have to say in answer is, that we did not think that the Political Tinkers called an American State Council, met at Montgomery on the 13th November and tried their hands in the patchwork of mending an old garment with new cloth; and we read carefully a set of resolutions, which the Eagle calls a platform, passed by them. The only peculiarity which we noticed however in this production of a mountain that brought forth a mouse, was a little more careful and ingenious selection of language to cover up their real designs of opposition to democracy, their religious intolerance and proscription of foreigners.

On another subject, we would suggest to the editors of the Eagle, that if they continue to publish communications, without note comment or protest, which expose the "horrid oaths" and "filthy holes," of Know Nothings, they will verify the old adage, "give some men rope enough and they will hang themselves." It is in fact that they can excuse in Whigs, what is such a horrible contamination of democrats?

It will doubtless be good news to our patrons and friends who have labored to those who have labored assiduously for our downfall, to be informed that our subscription is larger now than ever before.

Woodland Female College.
We take pleasure in calling special attention of the friends of female education to the circular of the President and Trustees of this excellent institution of learning. The arrangements for the ensuing year, and also the proposals to secure a scholarship from one year up to perpetual, will be found to embrace more features of economy than perhaps can be found at any other point.

The President, Rev. J. M. Wood, has been long and favorably known in this State and Georgia, and has earned for himself an enviable reputation as a teacher, and President of such an institution. The Trustees have also secured the services of an able faculty. Taken altogether, we hesitate not to say that the College, in this beautiful, romantic and healthy locality, offers advantages, equalled by few if any others, and that it merits, and we hope will receive a liberal share of patronage from those in this community, who send to female Colleges and Institutes at a distance.

The Eagle asks us some additional questions in the last issue, the most important of which is in relation to the meeting and action of the late Know Nothing State Council at Montgomery. He asks our opinion of the Platform there adopted. All we have to say in answer is, that we did not think that the Political Tinkers called an American State Council, met at Montgomery on the 13th November and tried their hands in the patchwork of mending an old garment with new cloth; and we read carefully a set of resolutions, which the Eagle calls a platform, passed by them. The only peculiarity which we noticed however in this production of a mountain that brought forth a mouse, was a little more careful and ingenious selection of language to cover up their real designs of opposition to democracy, their religious intolerance and proscription of foreigners.

On another subject, we would suggest to the editors of the Eagle, that if they continue to publish communications, without note comment or protest, which expose the "horrid oaths" and "filthy holes," of Know Nothings, they will verify the old adage, "give some men rope enough and they will hang tations where they are employed.

Mr. Woolsey moved to recommit the bill to a special committee composed of the planters of the House, adopted.
Mr. Reid, from Select Committee, reported favorably on the bill to increase the pay of jailors, and to amend section 3992 of the Code.

Congressional.
Washington, Dec. 3, p. m.—The Senate organized to-day. The House went into an election for speaker; on the third ballot Richardson received twenty-four votes, Campbell fifty-five, Banks twenty-two, Marshall thirty; and the House adjourned without an election. There is no prospect of an organization.

Washington, Dec. 4.—Governor Shannon yesterday telegraphed the President for aid to suppress the outbreak between the pro and anti-slavery parties of Kansas. The President immediately ordered troops from the nearest points to preserve the peace.
Affairs with England are unchanged. Mr. Buchanan says the British Cabinet are endeavoring to patch up a reply in reference to the violation of our neutrality laws by her Minister.

It is believed the House will organize to-day. You may expect the message to be delivered to-morrow.
The proposition of Denmark to substitute an ad valorem tax on the cargo for the present system of assessing the Sound dues, has been rejected by our Government.

The steamers May Flower, George Collier and the war boat at Memphis have been burnt. It is reported several lives were lost.

LATER FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE ATLANTIC.

COTTON UNCHANGED.
New York, Nov. 30.
The steamship Atlantic has arrived with Liverpool dates to the 17th inst. The Liverpool cotton market opened buoyant, but closed quiet, with sales for the week of 59,000 bales including 15,000 bales, taken by speculators and importers.

THE WAR.
The latest despatches from the seat of war report officially, that a victory was gained on the 5th inst., by Omar Pasha, over 10,000 Russians, mostly Georgian militia, at the Ingour, which Omar, with his Turkish forces, 20,000 strong, crossed at four different points, in the battle, the Turks took sixty prisoners and five Generals.

The Russians had 400 killed and wounded the Turkish loss was 300. A private dispatch evidently referring to the same encounter, says the Turkish crossed the river Anakava, and stormed the Russian redoubts, after which they pushed forward towards Kutais, Kars was still besieged. Appearances indicate that the Russians will retire to Erzerum. There is nothing new from the Crimea, only a few ships remain in the Dnieper. The bulk of the Allied fleets are returning to Constantinople. Peace rumors are extremely prevalent but vague. Diplomacy is active, especially at Stockholm, Vienna and Brussels.
The Paris exhibition is closed. 12,000 prizes, including numerous decorations of the Legion of Honor, had been awarded.
The latest rumors state that there is a probability of an early dissolution of Parliament.

SENATOR DOUGLASS DEAD.
A report is in circulation, that Senator Douglass is dead, but it is believed to be unfounded.
ARRIVAL OF THE GEORGE LAW.
The George Law has arrived, bringing nearly two millions in specie. No news of importance.
FROM KANSAS.
St. Louis, Nov. 30.—The Abolitionists went to a Mr. Coleman's claim, at Hickory Point, Kansas, and ordered him to leave in ten minutes or be shot. He left, but returned armed to the teeth, one of the three attempted to shoot him, but his rifle missed fire, when Coleman shot him dead, and gave himself up for trial. A mob of Abolitionists drove off his wife and children and burnt his house and other property. The leader and one other were arrested. The Abolitionists assembled at Leavenworth and demanded the release of their comrades and the surrender of Coleman. The militia is ordered out to sustain the Marshal. Great excitement prevails on the border. Large numbers from Missouri are going to Kansas.
Sixteen houses were burnt at Hickory Point and several citizens shot.
Wheatport, Nov. 30.—The outlaws in Douglas county have burnt a number of houses and driven women and children to Missouri for refuge. The law and order people of the territory are rallying to assist the Sheriff.

Indian War in Oregon.
INTENSE EXCITEMENT IN THE TERRITORY.
The San Francisco Times and Transcript has advances from Portland, Oregon, to the 27th of October. The news is highly important.
The Indians in the whole Territory, from the Northern to the Southern boundary, were in a state of insurrection. In the North, various tribes have combined constituting a body so numerous, as to have been enabled to defeat the regular troops, and to have forced Major Haller to retreat with great difficulty to Fort Dallas, after having suffered a serious loss. At this point he was awaiting reinforcement from California which had been sent by Gen. Wool. To these, a large volunteer force, called out by the Governor, would be added. The war will doubtless be waged with vigor. In the South of the Territory, affairs were in a frightful state.

GREAT BRITAIN.
Sir Charles Napier, in a letter to the Times demands a "Baltic Committee" to inquire whether the Admiralty at home have done their duty. If the fleet had been provided this year with a sufficient number of guns and mortar boats, Sweden, he contends, might have been completely destroyed.

A grand Crimean banquet, attended by fifty officers who took part in the campaign, has been held at Glasgow, the Duke of Hamilton presiding. Sir Archibald Hamilton made a brilliant speech.

Miss Charlotte Hinds, the purchaser of an Irish estate under the Encumbered Estate act, has been barbarously maltreated by some refractory tenants, who waylaid her.

Louisville, Dec. 4.—Reports from Kansas to third state that the most intense excitement prevails. The mob refused to allow any persons concerned in the outrage to any officers, unless to the government or the general government. Gen. Lane strengthened this determination, also the editor of paper in Lawrence, by harangues to the populace urging preparations to fight. Gen. Lane strengthening himself by throwing up breastworks and his defiance.

Holloway's Pills possess most astonishing powers in the cure of General Debility.—Copy of a letter from Henry Antoine, of Houston, Chichasaw, Mississippi, to Professor Holloway. "Sir, I suffered for a number of years from weakness and general debility, and was brought to death's door by the same. I was told by those I consulted, that there was no hope of my recovery, when I resolved to give your Pills a trial, after using them for about five weeks, my health was considerably improved, and at the expiration of two months every symptom of my disorder disappeared." (Signed) H. ANTOINE.

H. G. FARRELL'S Celebrated Arabian Linctament.
The following is from the principal account of the wealthy and highly respectable house of Messrs. Votis & Bro. of this city, and presents one of the most wonderful cures in the annals of medical history:
Mr. H. G. Farrell—Dear Sir: Actuated by a sense of gratefulness, I submit the following as an instance of the utility of your great medicine. My child, three years old, was suddenly attacked with a terrible disease, which in less than six hours prostrated it to total helplessness. The limbs became so rigid that not a joint could be bent; the flesh turned black and cold and entirely deprived of feeling; the eyes fixed, partially closed and altogether blind, following this was deafness to all sounds; the spine became contracted and so curved that when lying on its back the head and heels only touched. Indeed, the child presented every appearance of being dead. Immediately on the attack, the family physician was called in, and for three weeks he labored to restore it to feeling, but all in vain, although it was blistered a dozen times and various rubefacient liniments applied. A consultation of physicians was then brought before the Medical Society, but nothing could be suggested which had not already been done, and the doctor then told me he could do nothing more. We then commenced applying your Linctament freely over the entire length of the spine, and you may imagine a parent's joy when, after a few applications, returning animation was apparent, and it rapidly recovered with the exception of the sight, which did not become perfect for over a month. The child is now healthy and robust as can be. Five other cases of the same kind occurred previously in my neighborhood, all of which died, when there is no doubt if your Linctament had been used they would have recovered.
H. G. CLELAND.
A HARD LUMP ON A HORSE'S BREAST.—Mr. H. G. Farrell: I have used your Arabian Linctament with gratification in several cases, the most remarkable of which was a large lump that appeared on my horse's breast. It was very hard, appearing to be hard gristle. It remained for nearly a year, when I applied for your Linctament, one bottle of which entirely cured it. I can recommend it as the best Linctament ever used.
JOHN CRAWL.

LATE FROM TENNESSE.

Tuition in Music, $40 00 per Annum.
Primary Department, (1st Class), $15 00 per Annum.
(2d Class), $20 00 per Annum.
Charges for Books, &c., 50 cts to cover cost.
Settlement will be required at the close of each Session.
Scholarships are offered at the following rates: The payment of $700 will secure to a pupil the privileges of the Literary Department for two years—$100, three years—$120, four years—$400 will secure a perpetual scholarship. By this arrangement, a pupil can be heard and educated for $110 a year, a less amount than is paid for board and washing at most institutions, and nearly a hundred dollars less than is paid for the same facilities at other places. These inducements are offered by an outlay of money from other sources than the income of the School—a gratuity to the public.

FACILITIES.
The Faculty is composed of able and experienced teachers. They have good Chemical Apparatus at their command. The board of house is to be managed by a good Steward and lady, who will guard the health and morals of young Ladies. Pupils will be required to attend Sunday school and preaching every Sabbath. Suitable provisions will be made for Music and for Primary scholars.
REGULATIONS.
Rules for the Government of the School are such as we deem necessary for the good of the pupils and the institution, enforced with kindness, but with firmness. Persons wishing to enter public or purchase scholarships, will please address the President.

JACOBS CORDIAL.
FOR ALL
BOWEL DISEASES.
CHOLERA MORBUS,
BILIOUS COLIC,
CHOLERA INFANTUM.

ALSO ADAPTED TO MANY DISEASES OF FEMALES
MOST ESPECIALLY PAINFUL MENSTRUATION.

The Virtues of Jacob's Cordial are too well known to require Eulogiums.
1. It cures the worst cases of Diarrhea.
2. It cures the worst forms of Dysentery.
3. It cures Cholera or Mexican Diarrhea.
4. It relieves the severest Colic.
5. It cures Cholera Morbus.
6. It cures Cholera Infantum.

A few short Extracts from Letters, Testimonials, &c.

"I have used Jacob's Cordial in my family, and have found it a most efficient and in my judgment, a valuable remedy."
Hon. HIRSH WARDEN,
Judge of Supreme Court Ga.

"It gives me pleasure in being able to recommend Jacob's Cordial—my own personal experience, and the experience of my neighbors and friends around me, is a sufficient guarantee for me to believe it to be all that it purports to be viz. A SOVEREIGN REMEDY."
Wm. H. UNDERWOOD,
Formerly Judge Supr Court, Cherokee Circuit.

"I take great pleasure in recommending this invaluable medicine to all afflicted with bowel diseases, for which I believe it to be a sovereign remedy decidedly superior to anything else ever tried by me."
A. A. GAULDING,
Deputy G. M. of the Grand Lodge of Georgia.

"I have used Jacob's Cordial in my family, and this, with all I hear about it as a remedy by those who have tried it, induces me to believe that it stands at the head of every preparation of the kind, and I would recommend its use in the diseases for which it is compounded."
MRS. G. DUBOIS,
Cashier of the Bank of the State of Georgia, Griffin.

"If there is and credibility in human testimony, Jacob's Cordial must stand pre-eminent above all other preparations for the cure of Bowel Diseases. From the mass of testimony in its favor coming from all quarters, it must be very far in advance, as a curative agent, of most if not all other 'patent' preparations."
A. FLEMING, Cashier Marine and Fire Ins. Bk. of Ga., Griffin.

"This efficient remedy is travelling into celebrity as fast as Bonaparte pushed the columns into Russia, and gaining commendations wherever used."
Georgia Jeffersonian, May 19, 1853.

COSMOPOLITAN ART ASSOCIATION
Second Year.

ARRANGEMENTS for the Second Annual Collection of this new and popular Institute for the diffusion of literature and Art, is now made on the most extensive scale. Among the works already engaged, is the far-famed which originally cost Ten Thousand Dollars. In forming the new Collection, the diffusion of works of American Art, and the encouragement of American genius, have not been overlooked. Commissions have been issued to many of the most distinguished American Artists, who will contribute some of their finest productions. Among them are three Marble Busts, executed by the greatest living Sculptor—Hiram Powers:
"GENOA CRUCIFIX"
GEORGE WASHINGTON, of his Country;
BENJAMIN FRANKLIN, the Philosopher;
DANIEL WEBSTER, the Statesman.

A special agent has visited Europe and made careful and judicious selection of the best works of Art, both in Bronze and Marble—Statuary and Choice Paintings. The whole forming a large and valuable collection of paintings and Statuary, to be distributed among the members of the Association for the Second Year. The Literature connected with the Institute consists of the following Monthly Magazine: Hesper's, Putnam's, Knickerbocker, Blackwood's, Graham's, Godey's, Lady's Book, and Household Words. Several taking five memberships are entitled to any five of the Magazines for one year, and to six tickets for the distribution.

The proceeds derived from the sale of memberships, are devoted to the purchase of works of Art, and the expenses of the Association. The advantages secured by becoming a member of this Association, are—1st. All persons receive the FULL VALUE of their subscription AT THE START, in the shape of choice Works of Art, which are to be distributed among its members, and are at the same time encouraging the Artists of the country, dispersing thousands of dollars through its agency.

Persons in receiving funds for membership, will please give their post office address in full, stating the month they wish the Magazine to commence, and have the latter registered at the post office to prevent loss on the receipt of which, a certificate of membership together with the Magazine desired, will be forwarded to any part of the country.

It is so who purchase Magazines at 10c a copy, will observe that by joining this Association, they receive the Magazine and five Tickets in the annual distribution, at the same price they pay for the Magazine alone.

Beautifully illustrated Catalogues full descriptions, sent free on application.

Helmholtz's Genuine Preparations.
HELMHOLTZ'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED Compound Fluid Extract Buchu.
For diseases of the Bladder and Kidneys, Stricture, and all diseases of the Sexual Organs, whether in Male or Female, from whatever cause they may have originated, and no matter of how long standing.

If you have contracted the fearful disease which when once seated in the system, will surely go down from one generation to another, undermining the constitution, and sapping the very vital fluids of life, do not trust yourself in the hands of Quacks, who start up every day in a city like this, and fill the papers with glowing falsehoods, too well calculated to deceive the young, and those not acquainted with their tricks. You cannot be too careful in the selection of a remedy in these cases.

The Fluid Extract Buchu has been pronounced by eminent physicians the greatest remedy ever known. It is a medicine perfectly pleasant in its taste, and very innocent in its action, and yet so thorough that it annihilates every particle of the disease, and restores the system to its natural state, and unlike other remedies, does not dry up the disease in the blood.

Constitutional Debility, brought on by self abuse, a most terrible disease, which has ruined thousands of the human race to untimely graves, thus blighting the brilliant hopes of parents, and blighting in the bud the glorious anticipations of the young, can be cured by the use of this medicine, which must be taken every day, until the system is completely renovated, and the blood pure and healthy. No equal is to be found, being both a Cure and preventive.

HELMHOLTZ'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED Compound Fluid Extract Sarsaparilla.
For purifying the blood, removing all diseases arising from excess of Mercury, exposure and impurities in life, chronic constitutional disease, arising from an impure state of the blood, and the only reliable and effectual known remedy for the cure of Syphilis, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ulcers of the Throat and Legs, Pains and Swellings of the Bones, Tetter, Pimples on the Face, and all Scaly Eruptions of the Skin.

This article is now prescribed by some of the most distinguished physicians in the country, and has cured more patients, in practice than any preparation of Sarsaparilla yet offered to the public. Several cases of Secondary Syphilis, Mercurial and Venereal diseases have entirely recovered in the hands of our Fluid Extract, which has been many years tested every mode of treatment that could be devised. These cases striking examples of the efficacy of this medicine.

The most inveterate diseases, after the Fluid Extract has been used, are already cured. Numerous Letters from respectable Physicians and Professors of several Medical Colleges, and certificates of cures from patients will be found accompanying this Preparation.

PRICES: Fluid Extract of Buchu, $1 per bottle, or bottles for $5.
Fluid Extract of Sarsaparilla, $1 per bottle or 6 bottles for $5.00, sent in strength to one gallon of Syrup of Sarsaparilla.
Prepared and sold by H. T. HELMHOLTZ, Chemist, 262 Chestnut Street, near the Girard House, Philadelphia.
